Hello-

I just want to let you know Lilian is good with CRFLO's proposed statement:

"The U.S. EPA External Civil Rights Complaint Office (ECRCO) has a general office policy against disclosing the personally identifiable information of complainants and witnesses. If a request for such information is filed under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), FOIA includes protections against disclosures of information involving matters of personal privacy. FOIA also includes protections against disclosures of information (including personally identifiable information that can be used to distinguish, trace, or identify an individual's identity) compiled for law enforcement purposes, such as ECRCO investigations."

If there are no concerns or further changes, I plan to send to Paul asap. Thanks!

I agree. (See? Trainings can actually be useful sometimes!)
